EASLEY APPOINTS DIX TO HOMELESS PROGRAMS/INTERAGENCY COUNCIL

Raleigh - Gov. Mike Easley has appointed Larry C. Dix of Raleigh to the North Carolina Interagency Council for Coordinating Homeless Programs.

Dix is the assistant secretary for administration at the N.C. Department of Juvenile Justice and Delinquency Prevention. Previously, he served as special assistant to the secretary and area administrator. Dix is an active member of Inwood Baptist Church in Raleigh. He graduated from Louisburg College and N.C. State University.

The Interagency Council for Coordinating Homeless Programs advises on issues related to the problems of persons who are homeless or at risk of becoming homeless, identifies and secures available resources, provides recommendations for joint and co-op efforts and policy initiatives in carrying out programs to meet the needs of the homeless. The council also submits an annual report on its accomplishments and the status of homelessness in North Carolina. There are 29 members on the board, each serving a 3-year term. The governor appoints all members.
